As November 2022 sees the 50th anniversary of the World Heritage Convention, WHUK thought it would be ideal to celebrate this milestone at our conference. And to reflect UNESCO's own thinking and this year's venue, we thought that we should also consider where World Heritage might head in the coming years. Day 1 will therefore look back and day 2 will look ahead.

Speakers include representatives from UNESCO, ICOMOS-UK, the UK Commission to UNESCO, the National Trust, Linnaeus University in Sweden, the Irish Government, World Heritage Youth Ambassadors, Newcastle University, the National Lottery Heritage Fund and more.
